

INTERNATIONAL DYLAN THOMAS DAY

PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION 2023

On May 14th each year we celebrate International Dylan Thomas Day, the anniversary of the first ever stage production of Under Milk Wood, which took place at the 92Y Poetry Center in New York in 1953

For 2023 we hope you'll join in the celebration by taking part in our Dylan Thomas Photography Competition. Make a photograph, short video or artwork inspired by the words of Dylan Thomas, and get ready to share it on your Twitter or Instagram account, or on the Dylan Thomas 100 Facebook page.

This year, to mark the 70th anniversary of the first performance of Under Milk Wood, we'd love you to use words from Dylan's masterpiece as your inspiration

On Sunday May 14th please share your image along with a quotation from Under Milk Wood using the hashtags #MyMilkWood and #DylanDay

We'll share our favourites on social media and feature them on a blog for the Discover Dylan Thomas website. Dylan's granddaughter Hannah Ellis will choose her favourite image and the winner will receive a prize. Good luck!
